

FashionForest Scholarship

Would you love to go abroad to pursue your special academic interest or something you are keen on working with either on a practical or theoretical level? And would you like some financial support for this endeavour? Then we prompt you to apply for the FashionForest scholarship right here. The application process is easy and does not take long time to complete.

The FashionForest Scholarship is awarded on a yearly basis to one or more researchers, students or members of the workforce who are in need of support for a theoretical or practical project in connection to either an educational purpose or work – or both combined.

This could for example be within the health sector or within the humanitarian or artistic sphere or combinations of several academic or practical segments or topics.

Behind the FashionForest Scholarship is FashionForest, who also carries out the selection of scholarship recipients. The FashionForest scholarship is awarded to researchers, students and former students at Danish and foreign educational institutions or members of the workforce. Due to special connections to the FashionForest scholarship some research purposes, lines of work and places of interest like for example the Tartu can be assigned significant weight in the process of selection but all everyone are invited to apply.

The deadline for applications is 1. March 2020. All applications will be thoroughly assessed and the recipient of the FashionForest scholarship will be notified directly on 1. August 2020.

The FashionForest Scholarship offers:

- Financial support for research projects, studies or work
- Financial support for testing theories in practice
- Financial support for dissertations
- Have eventual research results or work-related accomplishments shared widely
- 10.000 DKK
